Ketchell Defeats Thomas MANTLE OF SNOW FALLS

DECISION IN BLOODY FIGHT TO KETCHELL

Gory and Sensational Battle of Twenty Rounds, Before 7000 People.

Ketchell of Butte, Mont., was given the the end of twenty rounds of sensational and bloody nighting, at Recreation Park, gressiveness, his cleaner hitting and more powerful punches. The men fought every inch of the way from start to finto places before the final gong sounded. Each man scored two knockdowns during the contest. A driving rain broke through the canvas-covered roof of the arena, furing the tenth round, and both the fighters and spectators were thoroughly dreached before the match ended. Seven thousand people witnessed the exhibi-

Lawson Surprises Samuelson.

A month before the New York six-day bleycle race, iver Lawson went to W. E. Samuelson to get him for a team mate in the long grind. Samuelson thought that Lawson could not stand the long race and refused to sign up. After the race had started Samuelson saw his mistake, and white he quit riding on the third day of the race, Lawson is still grinding away, and it is reported that if he had a partner as good as himself he would win the race in a walk. Riders like Lawson and Kramer can adapt themselves to any style of racing, as they are natural born sprinters. born sprinters

SING SING FOR SIX YEARS

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.-Herman Henz, who made silver coins so well that only experts could distinguish his product from that of the mint was sentenced today to six years at Sing Sing prison and to pay the Government $250 in real money.

Henz's method was to melt up Mexican silver dollars and remold the bullion into counterfeits of United States fifty-cent pieces. The counterfeiter calmly admitted having made the coins, and set up the defense that his money was as good as the Government's and that, consequently, no one had been defrauded. He was making money, he said, with which to build an airship, as he was certain that he had selved the problem of aerial navigation. navigation. Henz came east from San Francisco and began business in a cottage on the outskirts of Suffern, N. Y. The curiosity which led a party of boys to peep through a window of the cottage recently proved his undoing.
